Old Business

Status of Ongoing Projects

Projects out at the range are pretty much at a standstill due to the snowy weather. However, as noted last month the current status of ongoing projects is as follows:

- Shotgun Trap: For safety purposes 3-5 people need to be trained to operate the trap machine. Contact Doug Wickre or Steve Strampe to schedule using the trap machine.
- North Pistol Bays: Grading is complete.
- South Pistol Bay: Sand will be added to the back stop slope
- Gate, Fencing: The main gate replacement has been completed.

Raffle Tickets for Friends of NRA Sponsorship Pistols

Several proposals are still being discussed. However, most members present favored setting up a table at some of the county events, such as, Chief Joseph Days, the two car shows, and the 4th of July.

Also under consideration is selling tickets for just one raffle with 200 tickets to be sold at $20/ticket. Two winners with the first winner getting first choice and the second winner getting the other pistol.

New Business

RMEF Donation

The Board voted to donate two membership packages to be auctioned off at the RMEF banquet. Doug Wickre will draft a membership letter for the banquet.

CMP Annual Renewal

Ken Terrill was notified that ECSA membership in the Civilian Marksmanship Program (CMP) for 2017 is due. The cost is $30/year and entitles all ECSA members access to CMP sales and programs. For info: <http://thecmp.org>

RSO Training

Doug Wickre proposed April 8-9 to have a certified NRA instructor, Wayne Clapper, conduct a Range Safety Officer (RSO) class for interested members and the public.

Good of the Order

VFW Taco Feed

The VFW taco feed will continue through the winter. Hours are 5:00 to 8:00 pm and the cost is $7 per person. All profits are going to Sandy Kesler who suffered a house fire early a few months ago.
