On a motion by Doug Wickre and seconded by Ken Terrill the July meeting is rescheduled for July 17 due to conflicting schedules.

New Business

ECSA Insurance

Our insurance provider was unable to come to the June meeting to discuss ECSA insurance policies. Doug will try to reschedule for the July meeting.

This Old Gun

John Wright brought in a Colt 1847 Walker made by Uberti, a 44 cal. cap and ball designed by Sam Walker and Sam Colt for the Texas Rangers with a 9 inch barrel. Each ranger was issued two that they were carried in pommel holsters on their saddle. Sam Walker told Sam Colt he wanted a pistol that would kill a horse or man at a 100 Yards it was designed to load 60 gr. of black powder and was said to be the most powerful handgun until the .357 mag.
